Consent to Contact Client

Thank you for entrusting us with your consulting, accounting and tax compliance needs. We view our service to you as a privilege and a responsibility that requires our constant vigilance of business, financial and tax issues that affect you and your family.

Recent years have brought unprecedented changes to both federal and state tax laws. We work hard on your behalf to monitor the opportunities created by tax and economic changes. Applying all of our experience, knowledge and resources ensures that you receive the most beneficial results possible.

Pursuant to regulations under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) §7216, we are prohibited from using any information that we obtain from you in connection with the preparation of your tax returns, for any purpose other than to prepare your tax returns, without your consent.

Our commitment is to help you stay informed of the rapidly changing business, financial and tax environment. Before we may provide you with advice or disclose to you any non-tax opportunities and recommendations discovered while preparing your tax returns, IRC §7216 requires your written consent.

By granting your consent, we will communicate with you by telephone, mail, web site, in-house seminar programs, newsletters and/or periodic email to quickly inform you of time-sensitive issues and opportunities. As always, your information is strictly confidential and is for our internal use only. We will only contact you when important information is brought to our attention that may affect your financial well-being.

To grant this consent, please sign, date and return this form to our office by hand delivery, fax, email or postal service. We appreciate the opportunity to assist you with all your future consulting, accounting and tax compliance needs.
